About the tickets

MetroDay tickets are available on the bus from the driver.

All other DayRover tickets come in two forms - scratch-off or pre-dated - depending on when you want to travel.

- Scratch-off tickets (Family, Train & Bus and Bus DayRovers), which are sold at bus stations and post offices, have no specific date of travel. On the day you want to use the ticket, simply scratch off the day, date and month and year and seal it with the protective overlay. Scratch-off tickets are not sold at rail outlets.
- Pre-dated tickets
You can buy them on the day of use or in advance if you know when you want to travel:
  - Pre-dated/on the day Family, Train & Bus, Train DayRovers are available at rail stations.
  - Pre-dated/on the day Train DayRovers can also be bought on the train if there is no booking office open.

Where to buy

Adult bus-only MetroDay tickets are bought from the bus driver.

Other DayRover tickets are available from:

- Bradford Interchange, Dewsbury Bus Station, Halifax Bus Station, Huddersfield Bus Station, Keighley Bus Station, Leeds Bus Station and Wakefield Bus Station
- All staffed rail stations in West Yorkshire (Rail DayRovers & Rail & Bus Dayrovers only. Bus-only DayRovers are not sold at rail stations).
- Most post offices in West Yorkshire
- Leeds Visitor Centre, Leeds Corn Exchange and some Tourist Information Centres.
